

Who can apply

The scholarship is open to the following students who are finishing high school and entering their first year of university, college or another institute of higher learning on a full-time basis:

- Children and grandchildren as well as dependent children and grandchildren of UCTE members in good standing, retired members and deceased members.
- Children and dependent children of UCTE national office staff.

Requirements

To qualify, you must also meet the following requirements:

- A standing of 70% or higher in subjects required for entrance to university, college or a recognized institute of higher learning.
- Proof of registration in a full-time program at university, college or a recognized institute of higher learning.
- An essay between 1,000 and 1,500 words on the following topic: What I foresee as the role of organized labour in the future.

Application checklist

Please make sure that all the following documents are included with your application, otherwise, it may be considered incomplete.

Pages included in this package:

- A completed application form (page 7)
- A statement about your post-secondary program and future career plans (page 11)
- A short statement from a teacher (page 12)

Documents to attach

- An essay between 1,000 and 1,500 words (see requirements on this page)
- Proof of registration in a full-time program at a post-secondary institution
- A full copy of your secondary school transcript, including the final record for the past year;

If applying based on financial need:

Some families just can't afford the high price of tuition. For that reason, UCTE wants to provide a helping hand. One of the scholarships is dedicated to helping a student who would find the additional cost of a post-secondary education burdensome.

- Statement of parent's income (page 8, only if the application is for financial reasons).

Good to go? Send your application to:

By mail: UCTE Honours & Awards Committee
233 Gilmour Street, Suite 702
